

2010 Summer Institute for

TEACHERS OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE LEARNERS

The West Virginia Department of Education is pleased to partner with Berkeley County Schools to offer the 2010 Summer Institute on June 25, 2010 at Musselman High, Inwood, W.Va.

Key Note Speaker:

Lisa M. Tabku

- PreK-12 ELL Education Specialist and Associate Manager, Center for Applied Linguistics (CAL) Solutions
- Provides professional development and technical assistance to states, districts and schools to improve educational outcomes for ELLs
- Former teacher (elementary and secondary), grant writer, program coordinator for federal grant projects, and curriculum writer
- Served as the Language Access Director and Title III Coordinator in the D.C. Office of the State Superintendent of Education

AGENDA

- Audience: Secondary content teachers and ESL teachers
- AM Presentation: This session will provide teachers with strategies to develop the content knowledge and academic oral and literacy skills of ELLs.
- PM Presentation: This session will expand on the morning's session to provide additional strategies for ESL teachers to develop the academic oral and literacy skills of ELLs.
- Incentives: $350 stipend (for teachers traveling from more than 60 miles)

Application at: <http://wvconnections.k12.wv.us/summerprogram.html>

June 25, 2010

8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Musselman High